WHOLESALE LENDING

This Wholesale Lending Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into by and between Citizens Bank, N.A. (hereinafter referred to as "Lender"), and _____, whose name and notice address are set forth on the signatory page hereto, together with its successors in interest, (hereinafter referred to as "Broker"), dated as of the date set forth on the signatory page hereto. Whereas, the parties wish to establish a non-exclusive relationship whereby Broker will submit loan packages, on behalf of its clients, to Lender for possible funding. Now, therefore, the parties agree as follows:

1. GENERAL BROKER RESPONSIBILITY: Broker will, at Broker's sole expense:
 - a) submit to Lender a completed loan package under such programs, procedures, and fee schedule as Lender may establish;
 - b) furnish Lender with such credit and financial information, as required by Lender, on all loan packages submitted to Lender;
 - c) provide such additional information required by Lender or any of its secondary market sources to assist in the sale of a loan into the secondary market;
 - d) perform such other services as required for the closing and funding of a loan;
 - e) provide Lender with any information which could adversely affect the lending decision on any loan package; and
 - f) originate and process each loan in full compliance with FNMA, FHLMC, GNMA, FHA, VA, and other investors and requirements as Lender may identify in its website, Broker Handbook, Product Manuals, or other written communications.

2. CONTINUING OBLIGATIONS: Broker agrees to comply with all applicable regulations and statutes affecting licensing status, and/or the origination and processing of mortgage loans. Broker further agrees to properly supervise any agents or employees of Broker which directly or indirectly handle any phase of origination or processing of its mortgage loans. Broker shall immediately notify Lender of any claims, administrative proceedings, or actions by a government or private entity, which could affect Broker's status as a licensed entity. Broker shall notify Lender within 24 hours after a manager, loan officer, or other loan originator employed by Broker is terminated. Broker shall notify Lender of any changes in its ownership structure, corporate name, or address for notice within five (5) business days of such change.

3. BROKER FINANCIAL CONDITION: Broker hereby represents and warrants that Broker is solvent and has adequate financial capitalization to properly engage in the business of originating and processing mortgage loans. Broker agrees to provide Lender with financial reports on an annual basis or as reasonably requested by Lender and in a form acceptable to Lender. Broker also agrees to immediately notify Lender if Broker:
 - a) becomes insolvent;
 - b) incurs claims or obligations which could make it insolvent; and/or
 - c) experiences a material change in its financial condition that could impair Broker's ability to perform under this agreement.

4. LOAN DISPOSITION: Loan approval shall be within Lender's sole discretion and Broker shall not represent that Lender has approved a loan package until Lender has issued an approval to Broker in writing. All loans shall close in Lender's name, unless otherwise agreed to by Lender. Where Lender agrees to allow Broker to close in its name, Broker agrees to execute any documents required by Lender to perfect Lender's interest in the loan, including, but not limited to, a power of attorney to permit the endorsement, assignment, and/or transfer of notes, security instruments, and other loan documents. Broker agrees all loan packages submitted to Lender shall become the sole property of Lender upon a written disposition of the loan file. Broker agrees that Lender, at its option and Broker's expense, may choose to perform a quality control inspection of the loan package and decline a loan submitted by Broker if there are any material misstatements or omissions of fact. If Lender denies a loan application submitted to Lender for underwriting, and Broker does not obtain loan approval for the applicant from any other lending source, Broker agrees to issue to the applicant a denial notice that meets all requirements of the Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA). Such notice shall list all denying creditors, including Lender.

5. FEES:

- a) Broker's fee shall be payable if and when a loan is closed and funded by Lender and where Broker has:
 - i) obtained, in writing from Lender, a firm commitment of Lender's interest rate, discount rate, and ancillary fees;
 - ii) successfully negotiated with the borrower(s) any fees in excess of Lender's fees for the loan; and/or
 - iii) negotiated a yield spread premium fee from the Lender for the loan, if applicable.
- b) Broker is aware that Lender's pricing, as published daily to Broker, is subject to change without notice, and no loan is price-protected until such time as Lender has issued a written loan lock confirmation.
- c) Broker shall not be entitled to any fee if a loan does not fund, regardless of the reason.
- d) Should Lender identify that Broker's negotiated fees exceed applicable law, such fee or fees may be reduced, without notice to Broker, to achieve levels which do not comply.
- e) Any fee, yield spread premium, servicing release premium, or other fees or compensation payable to Broker shall be paid only after Lender deducts all of its fees and charges from the loan proceeds.
- f) Except as otherwise provided in section 8.f) of this Agreement, in the event Lender pays Broker a yield spread premium, servicing release premium, or other fees or compensation for a loan which is paid-off within 120 calendar days from the date of funding, then Broker shall repay to Lender one percent (1%) of the original principal amount of the loan within thirty (30) calendar days after demand therefore.

6. BROKER STATUS: Nothing in this agreement shall be construed as making the Broker a joint venture, partner, agent, representative, or employee of Lender. Broker shall not make any representations to the contrary, nor shall Broker use Lender's name in any advertising. Broker is an independent contractor, and Broker shall determine the method, details, and means of performing all services described herein, subject to the representations, warranties, and limitations contained herein.

7. BROKER WARRANTIES: Broker hereby represents and warrants to Lender:

- a) No Untrue Statements: None of the statements or information contained in any loan package will contain any untrue or erroneous statement, and Broker shall not omit any facts material to any loan package.
- b) Duly Licensed and Authorized: Broker is duly licensed under the laws of its state of operation and possesses all necessary licenses, permits, and authority to engage in the activities contemplated by this Agreement. Lender may require Broker to provide copies of such licenses or permits upon renewal. If Broker originates any loans outside the state where it is physically located, Broker warrants that it has obtained the required state agency approvals, territorial authority, and/or license to originate such loans, and will provide such upon request. The original application for any loan submitted to Lender was taken by Broker or an authorized employee and not by any third party.
- c) Regulatory Compliance: Broker will comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations with respect to its business activities and all loans, including all anti-predatory lending laws. Specifically, in connection therewith, Broker has given all applicable required local, state, federal, and/or agency disclosures to borrowers with respect to any loan.
- d) No Other Fees: Except as otherwise disclosed to and approved by Lender in writing, prior to the funding of any transaction by Lender, Broker shall not receive any direct or indirect payment or consideration from any third party with respect to the transaction, including, but not limited to, payments involving escrow, appraisal, or sale.
- e) No Pending Suits: Unless previously disclosed to Lender in writing, there is not pending or threatened any suit, action, arbitration, or legal, administrative or other proceeding or governmental investigation (including any allegation of fraud by another lender) against Broker or its current or former owners, agents, or employees that could have a material adverse effect on Broker's business, assets, financial condition, or reputation.

- f) Borrower Processing: No borrower has had in his or her possession, custody, or control any documentation provided directly by a third-party in order to verify a gift, credit, income, assets, employment, or deposit in connection with any loan application submitted to Lender.
- g) Corporate Good Standing: Broker is a duly organized and validly existing entity that is in good standing under the applicable laws and regulations of its state of organization, all jurisdictions in which it conducts business, and the United States of America. Broker has the requisite power, authority, and capacity, corporate or otherwise, to execute and deliver this agreement and perform its obligations hereunder. At any time, with reasonable notice, Lender may require Broker to provide copies of Broker's corporate or other organizational documents.
- h) No Violations of Law: Broker's execution and deliver of this Agreement, and performance hereunder, does not and will not violate any provision of any law, rule, or regulation (federal, state, or local); any order, writ, judgment, injunction, decree, determination, or award; or any other agreement or instrument to which the Broker is a party or by which it may be bound or affected. This warranty applies whether any of the above are presently effective or known by Broker to become effective.
- i) Fair Lending Statement: Broker acknowledges that it does not discriminate against applicants on the basis of age (as long as the borrower has the capacity to enter into a contract), color, race, religion, national origin, perceived or actual sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, familial status, marital status, or receipt of public assistance, because rights have been exercised under the Consumer Credit Protection Act, or any other prohibited basis. Broker has strictly complied with Lender's Fair Lending Procedures attached to this agreement as Exhibit A and incorporated by reference.
- j) Compensation Arrangements:
 - i) Broker's payments to its loan originators comply with all applicable laws, including, but not limited to, 12 C.F.R. § 226.36, as amended from time to time.
 - ii) Broker has not requested compensation from Lender that is based on the terms or conditions of any loan delivered or expected to be delivered by Broker, and the reasons stated by Broker for any requested change in compensation are true and correct.
 - iii) In any transaction in which Broker has received compensation from the consumer, neither Broker nor any of its loan originators has received, nor are any of them expected to receive, compensation from any other source.
 - iv) Broker has not delivered any loan to Lender based on the fact that Broker expects to receive greater compensation from Lender than in other transactions that Broker offered or could have offered to the consumer; and has subjected any loan delivered to Lender to any test that provides a legal "safe harbor" or similar protection against such a claim.

8. ADDITIONAL BROKER COVENANTS AND WARRANTIES: Broker represents and warrants that all loans submitted to Lender shall meet the following conditions, in addition to any other requirements set out in this Agreement:

- a) Appraisers:
 - i) Broker warrants that the appraiser's compensation was not affected by the approval or disapproval of the loan, or contingent upon returning a minimum appraised value.
 - ii) Lender reserves the right to refuse appraisals from any appraiser or appraisal firm whose work has been deemed unacceptable in Lender's sole discretionary judgment.
 - iii) Broker has strictly complied with the requirements of the Home Valuation Code of Conduct (HVCC) and/or HUD and FHA requirements for appraiser independence, as applicable.
- b) Broker shall execute all documentation required to close and fund loans to be purchased by Lender, including, if applicable, the assignment of the loans transferring and assigning to Lender all right, title, and interest in and to said loans, free and clear of any and all claims, charges, defenses, offsets, demands, or encumbrances of any kind or nature whatsoever.

- c) The note and security instrument executed in connection with a loan shall not be modified without Lender's prior written permissions. All documents affecting said loan shall be genuine and each shall be legal, valid, and binding upon borrowers.
- d) Lender may fund a loan and may temporarily withhold the Broker's compensation until all funding conditions have been met.
- e) The loan shall not be subject to any right of rescission after funding, or any offset, counterclaim, or defense, including the defense of usury.
- f) Broker shall not directly or indirectly solicit borrowers for the purpose of refinancing a loan previously brokered to Lender for a period of 120 calendar days from the date of funding the loan. If the loan is paid-off due to a refinance originated by Broker within 120 calendar days of the previous funding date, Broker agrees to return to Lender the yield spread premium, and/or any other fees or compensation paid by Lender to Broker in connection with the previous loan within thirty (30) calendar days after demand therefore.
- g) Broker has not used and shall not use any affiliated vendors without disclosure of such relationship and the express written authorization by Lender.
- h) Broker shall, upon request by Lender, use best efforts to take all actions necessary, in a timely and accurate manner, to obtain corrections to any and all loan documents deemed appropriate or desirable in Lender's sole discretion and to otherwise assist Lender in remedying any matter not in compliance with applicable law, regulations, or the requirements of Lender, including assisting Lender in obtaining recorded documentation related to a loan and title policies from closing agents, or to enable Lender to sell, convey, obtain guaranty for, or market loans. Broker shall execute a power of attorney authorizing Lender to endorse, transfer, or assign any loan closing in Broker's name.
- i) Upon request of Lender, Broker will provide Lender within five (5) business days with documentation evidencing Broker's compliance with 12 C.F.R. § 226.36, as amended from time to time.

9. REMEDIES:

- a) Upon Broker's discovery of a breach of any of the foregoing representations, warranties, or covenants, Broker shall notify Lender thereof within 24 hours.
- b) Upon the occurrence of a Repurchase Event (defined below), Broker shall at the sole option and absolute discretion of Lender: (i) repurchase the subject loan for the Repurchase Price (defined below) within ten (10) calendar days of notification, or (ii) Broker shall, within ten (10) calendar days of notification, pay Lender the amount of Loss (defined below). Lender in its sole discretion, if it deems a Repurchase Event curable, may give Broker twenty (20) calendar days to cure after notification. Broker's obligation to repurchase any loan or pay Lender the amount of Loss is binding and enforceable against Broker without regard to any limitation set forth in any representation or warranty concerning the knowledge of Broker as to the facts stated therein. Broker shall reimburse Lender directly for any expenses incurred by Lender, including, without limitation, court costs and reasonable fees and expenses of its counsel incurred by Lender in enforcing Broker's obligation set forth in this section and/or incurred due to Broker's failure to timely comply with its obligation.
- c) The term "Repurchase Event" shall be defined to include, in connection with any loan: (i) the failure to satisfy or comply with any representation, warranty, covenant, term, or condition of this Agreement, which failure affects the legality, validity, enforceability, marketability, or sale of such loan or security for such loan; (ii) failure to deliver within thirty (30) days after notice all post-closing or trailing documents required by Lender; (iii) discovery of evidence of fraudulent or negligent misrepresentation, forgery, or unauthorized alteration of a document; and/or (iv) if directly or indirectly arising from or related to any act or omission on the part of Broker, Lender's receipt of (x) demand or notice of repurchase or incurable deficiency from any secondary market purchaser, investor, or insurer, including without limitation, FHA, VA, Fannie Mae, Freddie

Mac, or any other government agency, government sponsored enterprise, or private investor; or (y) notice, demand, administrative or judicial process in connection with any claim (including counter-claims and offsets), investigation, regulatory or administrative action, judicial or arbitration proceeding involving the legality, validity, or enforceability of such loan or the security for such loan.

- d) The term "Repurchase Price" shall be defined as the sum total of: (i) the outstanding principal balance of the subject loan, with accrued unpaid interest thereon through the date the subject loan is repurchased by Broker; (ii) all advances made by Lender and all charges due from the Borrower; (iii) the total amount, including accrued interest and other expenses paid by the Lender to any senior lien holders, if any, to secure the priority lien position, (iv) all expenses, losses and damages paid or incurred by the Lender in connection with the subject loan or an investigation of said loan and/or the related collateral, including, but not limited to, property taxes, maintenance costs, interest expense, insurance, appraisals, advertising, sales commissions, reasonable attorney fees, expenses and cost, fines and penalties; and (v) any service release premium, yield spread premium, and/or other fees, consideration, or compensation Lender previously paid to Broker.
- e) The term "Loss" shall be defined as the negative result, if any, of the following calculations: (a) the sum total of (i) the outstanding principal balance of the subject loan, with accrued unpaid interest thereon through the date the subject loan is sold or date the collateral is liquidated; (ii) all advances by Lender and all charges due from the Borrower; (iii) the total amount paid by Lender to any senior lien holders, if any, to secure a first lien position; (iv) accrued interest on all loans purchased from senior lien holders from the date such loans were purchased through the date the loan is sold or the date the collateral is liquidated; and (v) all other expenses, losses and damages incurred by and/or paid by Lender in connection with the subject loan or an investigation of said loan or the sale or liquidation of the loan and/or related collateral, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney fees, expenses and costs, property taxes, maintenance costs, insurance, appraisals, advertising, sales commissions, fines, and penalties; less the (b) net proceeds from the sale of the subject loan or the sale or liquidation of the security property or the collateral.
- f) It is agreed by the parties that Broker's repurchase obligation with respect to a loan shall not be released, waived, limited, or mitigated by the fact that the property securing the loan has been foreclosed upon and said property has been acquired by Lender or a third party, it being understood that Broker's repurchase obligation encompasses the repurchase of the property from Lender if Lender has acquired the property, or, if a third party has acquired the property, reimbursement to Lender.

10. BROKER'S INDEMNIFICATION: Broker shall indemnify and hold Lender and its shareholders, directors, officers, agents, employees, successors and assigns harmless from and against, and shall reimburse the same with respect to, any and all liability, claims, losses, or other damages, including reasonable attorneys' fees, due to the unmarketability of any loan or repurchase demand resulting from acts performed during the origination of any loan, including, but not limited to, the following:

- a) any breach of any representation or warranty contained in paragraph 7 or 8;
- b) Broker's failure to comply with any obligation under this agreement;
- c) any claim by a borrower resulting from Lender's rightful failure or refusal to fund a particular loan; and/or
- d) any negligence, intentional act, fraudulent act or omission of Broker or its agents or employees.

11. LENDER'S RESERVATION OF RIGHTS: Lender's rights and remedies set forth in this Agreement are cumulative and in addition to all rights and remedies Lender may have at law or in equity. - Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States.

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items.

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 24% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships, earlier.

What is FATCA Reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account (other than an account maintained by a foreign financial institution (FFI)), list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9. If you are providing Form W-9 to an FFI to document a joint account, each holder of the account that is a U.S. person must provide a Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note: ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or “doing business as” (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C corporation, or S corporation. Enter the entity’s name as shown on the entity’s tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a “disregarded entity.” See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner’s name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner’s name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity’s name on line 2, “Business name/disregarded entity name.” If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box on line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box on line 3.

Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requester already has on file, write NEW at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.SSA.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/Businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. Go to www.irs.gov/Forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or SS-4 mailed to you within 10 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983.

You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983.

You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions.

You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments.

You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABLE accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions.

You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Pub. 5027, Identity Theft Information for Taxpayers.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a systemic problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at spam@uce.gov or report them at www.ftc.gov/complaint. You can contact the FTC at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 877-IDTHEFT (877-438-4338). If you have been the victim of identity theft, see www.IdentityTheft.gov and Pub. 5027.

Visit www.irs.gov/IdentityTheft to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.
